

Ossage Valley Banner.

Thursday, March 13, 1879.

Saml. J. Tilden recently received a paralytic stroke.

The Gate impeachment resolution was postponed until tomorrow.

A resolution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, passed the Kansas Legislature.

Hon. A. M. Lay has telegraphed his friends he will be able to take his seat on the convening of Congress, on the 15th inst.

The Butter, Cheese and Egg convention in Chicago on the 6th inst., considered the question of a foreign trade as well as in this country.

President Hayes vetoed the anti-Chinese bill, stopping the flood of Chinese immigration, and the Californians are denouncing Hayes in their newspapers.

The trial of State Treasurer Gates, indicted for receiving benefits from deposits of State funds, resulted in acquittal by the jury on the night of the 6th inst.

President Hayes has issued a proclamation convening an extra session of Congress on the 15th inst. The Times-Journal says: "As a whole, the body of men going in is better and abler than the body going out."

Now one of our state legislative committees has recommended and the house has ordered to engrossment a resolution forbidding United States courts jurisdiction in county bond cases. Our assembly might just as well resolve to repeal the United States constitution, for until that is got out of the way no U. S. court will heed such a joint and concurrent resolution.—St. Louis Republican.

An act concerning the assessment, levy and collection of taxes and the disbursement thereof, has been passed by both houses and signed by the Governor. It provides that county courts shall levy only these four taxes: The State revenue tax, the State interest tax, the tax for current county expenses, and the school tax; and that no other tax shall be levied unless ordered by the circuit court for the county. The bill prohibits county courts to pay any bonded debt, or the interest thereon, without an order from the circuit court; and it prohibits the payment of all railroad debts which the U. S. Supreme court has decided valid and binding.

The following giving something of the present condition of Leadville, Colo., is from the Denver, Col. Tribune:

"The streets are filled with men anxious to obtain employment, food and lodgings, and they can find neither. Food is plenty but these persons have no means to purchase. It is the duty of every newspaper in Colorado to warn moneyless people from going to Leadville. The interests of the State demand it. All the land around Leadville for miles has been staked out and prospected; and a man without money has no opportunity of finding any thing in the mines or in the city."

Review.

In the first place, you will observe, when J. H. D. Tomson says: "What is it that often causes the people of different governments to suffer? Is it not bad legislation?" You see he still aspires for legislative honors, but his failure to receive a single vote in the last election, as an Independent candidate, should settle his ravings in this direction. He ventures further with his self-esteem: "We propose a question. Why do Christians pray—'God, give us God-fearing men to rule over us in our government?' We ought to be consistent." Did he move in the direction of anything praiseworthy in his campaign last fall? Does he produce anything praiseworthy or union between the people of this day now? We say no, for in another article he produces what is commonly called the bloody shirt in the most absurd terms, which is inclined to create anything but harmony, good-will and peace. Is this Christianity, or is it ignorance an hypocrisy combined?

"Kicked Billy Patterson." "pouch utes gullet." "Dirty rag," "Devoted of contradiction." "Oh! whoop 'em up Lacy Jam!" better prepared to receive the next booting, miserable devil. "Machine unpaid for." "It is our miserable devil." "Idiot buffoon." "Land of cobwebs." "Whipped off." "A good job of bull-dozing." "Little peddle or kicked out of a butters shop." "kicked up a jackass." "County Court has been settling with the sheriff this week."

Now, the above quotations appear in his at week's issue. What do they consist of? Trifles, the trifles of vulgarity, ignorance, and falsehoods. He who pretends to be a reader, a teacher, a moralist, to send forth such a conglomeration of incomprehensible volumes, certainly does not gain favor here there exists morality and intelligence. He boasts a disgusting degree of his pretensions, his grammatical, musical, biblical, critical, and no telling how many other pretensions, but to get at his true colors can be found in the above quotations. In conclusion we say, if there is bile in such wisdom, as he has shown, 'tis folly to be wise.

Train-Wrecking.

The alleged train wreckers, Gibson, Reconstruct, Long, Oliver and Woodward, were indicted for wrecking the train on the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad at Good End a year or more ago, were brought trial at Waynesville last week, when the execution entered a nolle proes, and they are all discharged. Thursday of the present week an attempt was made to wreck the passenger train on the same road near Springfield by sawing the sleepers, that supported the track across a culvert, but the danger was discovered and announced to the approaching train by a boy just in time to prevent an accident. Whether there is any necessary connection between these two events, we are not prepared to say, but one thing may be asserted, and it is this: That the result of the Waynesville trial does not in any degree dispel the opinion that wrecking railroad trains in Missouri for purposes of robbery is an exploit attended by little danger to the authors.—St. Louis Republican

100 Years Ago.

Esqr. James Johnston has presented us with a copy of the "Water County Gazette," dated January 4th, 1870. It is a four column paper, draped in mourning for the demise of Gen'l. Washington. We quote the following:

"WASHINGTON REMEMBERED."

On Wednesday last, the mortal part of Washington the great—the father of his country and the friend of man, was consigned to the tomb, with solemn honors and funeral pomp.

In the long and lofty portico, where, oft the Hero walked in all his glory, now lay the shrouded corpse. The countenance still composed and serene, seemed to depress the dignity of the spirit which lately dwelt in that lifeless form. There those who paid the last and honors to the benefactor of his country, took an impressive farewell view.

On the monument, at the head of the coffin, was inscribed: SINE AN JUDICIUM—about the middle of the coffin, GLORIA DEO—and on the silver plate,

GENERAL

GEORGE WASHINGTON, Departed this life, on the 14th December, 1799, E. 68

Between three and four o'clock, the sound of artillery from a vessel in the river, firing minute guns, awoke across our solemn sorrow—the corpse was moved—a band of music with mournful melody melted the soul into all the tenderness of woe.

The procession was formed & moved on in the following order:

Cavalry, } With arms reversed.
Infantry, }
Guard, }
Music, }
Clergy, }
The General's horse with his saddle holsters, and pistols.

That said Michael Wyrick deceased died seized in fee simple of the following real estate in Miller county, to-wit: The northeast quarter southeast quarter and 30 acres part southwest quarter southeast quarter, section twenty, and the northeast quarter northeast quarter and southeast quarter northeast quarter and 30 acres part northeast quarter northeast quarter and 30 acres part northeast quarter southwest quarter and northwest quarter southwest quarter and southeast quarter northwest quarter section twenty-nine, all in township forty of range thirteen.

That since the decease of said Michael Wyrick Sr., Henry Wyrick one of the said heirs has sold and conveyed all his interest in said land to James Abbot. That Michael Wyrick, Hugh Wyrick, Callaway Wyrick, Ganum Wyrick, John Wyrick, Daniel Wyrick, Joseph Wyrick, Mahala Wyrick, Lucinda Wyrick, Sarah J. Workman and Levina L. The Court further finds that said lands are not susceptible of division in kind among the parties interested therein without great prejudice.

It is thereupon ordered adjudged and decreed by the court that partition be made of said real estate and that the said real estate be sold by the Sheriff of Miller county on the following terms to-wit: One-tenth cash, and the balance on a credit of twelve months with interest at six per cent, and that the sale be governed by the law governing sales of real estate under execution, and that after such sale the Sheriff report the same to the court, and after the payment of the purchase money and the payment of such costs as may be allowed by the Court, that the remainder be divided among the parties interested according to their respective rights as herein declared by the court; and the cause is continued for the report of said Sheriff.

Therefore, I will on Thursday, the 27th day of March, 1879, at the Court house door in Tuscumbia, county and state aforesaid, offer for sale the above real estate in obedience to the order of the court, as aforesaid. P. B. MILLER, Sheriff.
